20. Writing

The writing section is scored out of a total of eight points. There are four criteria, each of which receives two points.

Candidates whose writing ability for a criterion is considered to be below the minimum acceptable standard for B2 level receive zero points for that criterion. Candidates whose writing ability is judged to be at the minimum standard for B2 level receive one point for that criterion, while candidates whose ability for a criterion is considered to be above the minimum level for B2 receive two points for that criterion.

The number of points for each criterion is added together to give a total score out of eight.

A successful candidate at minimum B2 level can:

- Can write an essay or report which develops an argument, giving reasons in support of or against a particular point of view and explaining the advantages and disadvantages of various options.
- Can write clear, detailed descriptions on a variety of subjects related to his/her field of interest.
- Can write a review of a film, book or play.
